MEET THE CAST

Tanner Brunson (Steve/Randy) is a Sophomore from West Lafayette currently Undeclared. Tanner is also involved in Cup O'Joe Coffee House, Intramural Ultimate Frisbee, SJC Vocal Jazz Ensemble and Chamber Singers, Production Under Construction Improvisation Group, as well as Columbian Players. Tanner would like to say "Thank you for coming out and supporting our show. We hope you enjoy the serious moments in the show just as much as the humorous ones."

Savannah Carver (Stage Manager) is a freshman from New Whiteland, Indiana, majoring in Elementary Education. Savannah is also involved in Color Guard, Art Club and Puma Women. Savannah would like to thank everyone for the opportunity to stage manage this show, and would like to tell the cast to break a leg!

AJ Frigo (Jimmy/Phil) is a Freshman from Monon, Indiana with an undeclared major. AJ is also involved in Rugby, Campus ministry, and Team ATF. AJ would like to say thanks to all those who took the time to see us put on this performance. Safe travels and God bless!

Megan Hetzel (Marvalyn) is a Freshman from Valpo with an undeclared major. Megan is also involved with the Rugby Club, The Columbian Players, and The Production Under Construction Improvisation group. Megan would like to say thanks to family and friends for their support.

Darryl Jordan (East and Dave) is a Sophomore from Indianapolis, IN majoring in Mass Communications with a minor in Theater and is also involved in the Improv club. I hope that everyone enjoys the show and can take something from it. (p.s. you should clap really loud to the scenes that I am in...I'm just playing. But seriously)

Tadd Maddalozzo (Chad/Daniel Harding) is a freshman from Peoria, IL, majoring in Criminal Justice and Psychology. Tadd is also involved in campus ministry. He would like to say thank you to his family and friends for being there and making Saint Joseph's a great place to be.

Veronica Rivera (Rhonda) is a Sophomore from Chicago, IL majoring in criminal justice. Veronica would like to say thank you for coming. This is her first play at Saint Joe. We all hope you enjoy and get a great laugh out of it.

Jessie Ruisard (Villian/Gayle) is a junior from Valparaiso, Indiana majoring in business administration. Jessie is also involved in band, choir, Students in Free Enterprise, Ministry Outreach, and is also the President of the Columbian Players. Jessie would like to say, thank you for coming and we hope you enjoy the show!

Jessica Ruschke (Sandrine/Marcie) is a sophomore from Bright, IN majoring in English and minoring in secondary education and theatre. Jessica is also involved with the Observer, Puma Education Association, Campus Ministry, Columbian Players, and Measure. Jessica would like to say that she has enjoyed working with everyone involved in the production and hopes everyone enjoys the show.

Ken Scofield (Pete/Lendall) is a Junior from Roselawn, Indiana, majoring in Biology with a minor in theater. Ken is also involved with Science Club and Production Under Construction, SJC's improvisation troupe. Ken would like to say "Being a late addition, I wasn't sure how well I could integrate into the flow of rehearsals, but the process was a simple and pleasant one. I'm very excited to be a part of this play, as I saw something special in it when I first read the script. I'd like to thank John Rahe for once again giving me the opportunity to perform on Saint Joe's stage, and all my friends and family for supporting my acting endeavors. Finally, I'd like to thank the audience for coming to tonight's performance. It's not a show unless there's people there to witness it, and I'm positive you all will have a fantastic night of laughs and introspection as the talented performers on stage work their craft."

Nicola Searsbrook -(Glory) is a Freshman from Indianapolis majoring in Psychology. Nicola is also involved in the Colorguard and Winterguard. Nicola would like to say thank you to family, friends, and parents; Jacola and Henry for supporting her every day of her life. I love you.

Alycia Tassone (Ginette/Hope) is a sophomore Mass Communication major and Theater minor from DeMotte, IN. Alycia is involved in theater publicity, TV6 News, and is a radio DJ for 93.3 The Joe. She would love to say thank you to God, to her parents and family for their support, and to everyone who comes to see Almost, Maine. "I 'Hope' that you all enjoy this bunch of love stories that we've all worked so hard to perfect. Get lost in the scenes and enjoy the show!"

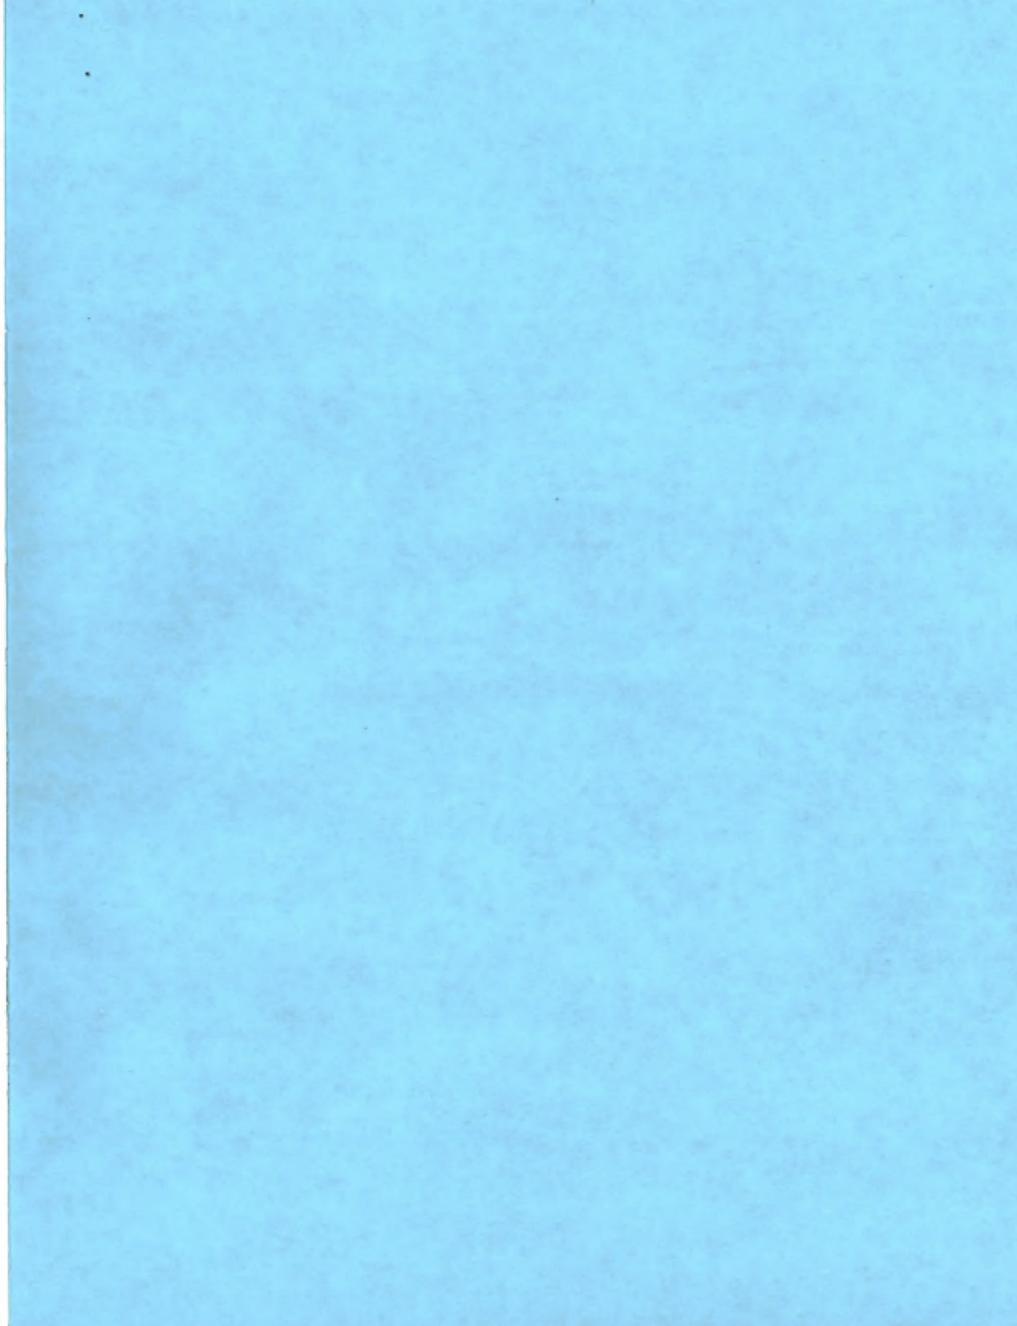

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

According to the Dictionary, the word "almost" is defined as "Slightly short of; not quite; nearly". By choosing to title his play "Almost, Maine" author John Cariani seems to be showing us a world made up of almosts. The inhabitants of this small town in the unincorporated area of Northern Maine are good people who are shaped, but not warped, by the harsh but beautiful northern environment and who are trying to figure out their lives just like everyone else. All of the characters have a feeling that they are close to the answer and that the final piece is almost here. Against the surrealist setting of the Northern Lights, the Inhabitants of Almost are trying to make sense out of love, relationships, and realizing that what they need is right here. The play is funny, sad, and touching and we hope that you enjoy your evening in Almost, Maine.

Thank you for supporting the Arts at SJC

Convinced to become a fan of the arts as little something special in life after I saw my first stage performance, I have to thank you all for the opportunity to perform on such a large and diverse stage and for the opportunity to interact with others. Finally, I would like to thank the audience for coming to the arts performances. Overall a wonderful experience. There are always a few things to practice but here are a few tips of insight and suggestion for those who have never been to the arts.

Monica Rodriguez, 17, is a Psychology major, with a minor in Psychology. Monica is still involved in the Congressional, Westminster, community like some other young people, though she hasn't been there for approximately three days and three nights. 2006-2007.

Allyre' Johnson, 18, is a psychology major, sophomore, and a double major in Health and Child Guidance. Allyre' is involved in theater, basketball, 2006-2007, and is involved in theater, A Day in the Life, which seems to be their favorite. Allyre' is a psychology major, and is involved with theater, basketball, and theater. Allyre' says "I hope that you all enjoy this branch of theater and we are involved in theater because that leaves the other branches dissolved."

Monica Rodriguez, 17, is a Psychology major.

According to an Oberammergau's local "guide" it is called "a "magical place to go, quite exotic". By visiting to Oberammergau, "there is no place like it in the world, it's unique, it's one of a kind". The inhabitants of Oberammergau are the most organized people. Bavaria, which are more pacifically organized, but less so in the other regions. Regional conflicts are common, and who are trying to figure out their lives and their personalities. All in the community have a feeling that they are closer to the community and the community is among them. Oberammergau is a small town of approximately 5,000 people. It is surrounded by the Alps, with a small town, and a large, long, and wide valley. Long, wide valley, with a large, long, and wide valley.
